Carron Valley Development Group

I have represented part of the Carron Valley for 33 years, first as a Member of Parliament and then as a Member of the Scottish Parliament. I have always thought that the area has great potential for out-door pursuits such as walking, running, mountain-biking, angling and nature trails. The area is of great scenic attraction and is within reasonable travelling distance for most of the population of central Scotland.

Since its inception, the Carron Valley Development Group has been very active in promoting the Carron Valley, particularly on improving access for a variety of activities, including mountain-biking, running and walking. I would therefore like to commend the work of the Carron Valley Development Group and to place on record my view that the Group is very deserving of support.

Yours sincerely
