Subject: Result of Catering Tender at CV

All

I had assumed I would tell the CVP at a meeting about the results of the catering tender, but with no date for next meeting in the diary, I realise I have already left it too long.

You will know we had one applicant, after spending more than £2k on advertising in local papers, and the FC website. After delays due to holiday commitments, the candidate was interviewed 17 July.

Unfortunately, after due consideration, we were not convinced that they were able to run the business as presented, and we decided not to take it forward. Accordingly, this tender process has now closed.

We are, however, willing to consider future proposals from interested parties.

Those copied in are the people I have personally seen and told; others of you may already have heard by now.

Thanks
